1st Annual “BRANDING IRON” Rocky Mountain Oyster Feed - June 24, 2009 5pm to 9pm in downtown Billings, Montana

This event is a fund-raiser with all proceeds to be equally divided between: The Chase Hawks Memorial Association Community Crisis Fund and the Montana Pro Rodeo Hall & Wall of Fame College Scholarship Fund.

A Cowboy tradition returns to downtown Billings, Montana on Wednesday June 24th from 5pm to 9pm outdoors in the parking lot of “The Rex” at 2401 Montana Ave. For a $5.00 admission you will receive a serving of beans and Rocky Mountain Oysters, also known as Cowboy Caviar, Prairie Oysters, Swinging Sirloin or Calf Fries. Rocky Mountain Oysters are true delicacies of the American West. All prepared by David Maplethorpe the executive chef at the Rex.

- Half a BEEF - the five dollar donation includes a drawing for a half a beef donated by the Montana Beef Council.
- Live Music - from country music favorites “Cooper and the Crowd Thinners”.
- Live Auction – to include: a bronze statue of Dan Mortensen (signed by him), a limited edition Chase Hawks engraved rifle, the original oil painting of the poster artwork by Cliff Potts, a branding block on the Branding Wall at MetraPark, Rex Gift Certificates plus additional food and beverage items.

This event has been generously underwritten by these great community minded sponsors: CENEX, Northwest Pipe Fittings, First Interstate Bank and Payne Financial Group.
